STAT The Honorable Seymore Weiss

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

STAT This letter confirms the recent telephone conversations you have had with [redacted] regarding lecturing to the students in our Community-wide course on Deception Analysis in intelligence.

I am pleased that you are available to address this class on 5 December 1985, from 1100 to 1200. Your remarks on the consumer's perspective of Soviet deception and its potential impact on finished intelligence are the keynotes which set the tone for the course.

STAT [redacted] will mail you further details shortly. If there is any way he may be of assistance, please call him [redacted]

STAT Cordially yours,

Director
of
Training and Education
